

WestStar Title's Janette Coon Retires, Leaving Legacy of Leadership and Community Service

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 30, 2025 (El Paso, TX) — Janette Coon, Senior Vice President and Commercial Escrow Officer at WestStar Title, will retire at the end of January, concluding a remarkable 41-year career.

Coon has been a valued member of the WestStar Title team for 14 years, enhancing daily operations and nurturing strong relationships with clients across the region.

"It has been a great honor to be part of WestStar Title and commercial real estate in El Paso," Coon said. "The colleagues I have worked with have become lifelong friends, and I am incredibly grateful for their support and my family's encouragement throughout my journey..."

She has made her mark in the El Paso business community by actively participating on the boards of several organizations, including Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM), the Greater El Paso Chamber of Commerce and the Business Development Division. Her service to our region also extends to Bien Vivir, the Central Business Association/Downtown Management Board, the Child Crisis Center and the Down Syndrome Coalition, along with leadership positions in the Sunrise Rotary of El Paso and Executive Women International.

"Janette's dedication and significant contributions have greatly benefited WestStar, WestStar Title and the Borderplex. As she embarks on her retirement, we want to express our gratitude for her hard work and wish her the best in retirement," said David W. Osborn, President and CEO.

Coon retires with an impressive record of contributions that will be missed by her colleagues at WestStar Title and the broader commercial real estate community in El Paso.
