

Dan Cueto Graduates from Prestigious Southwestern Graduate School of Banking

July 8, 2019 (El Paso, TX) – WestStar is pleased to announce the recent graduation of Dan Cueto, Senior Vice President, from the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking (SWGSB) at the Cox School of Business, at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Dan has been with WestStar for 3 years and has 34 years of commercial banking and leadership experience. He received his bachelor's degree in Accounting from New Mexico State University. An active member of the Borderplex community, Dan currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Directors for Hospice El Paso (past President), and the Finance Committee for the YWCA.

Established in 1957, the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking is the preeminent national provider of executive banking education, training and information to the financial services industry. The intensive program meets two weeks annually over three years and emphasizes financial management, leadership development, and strategic planning.
